

With the support of the Erasmus+ Programme of the European Union

Robert Triffin International

CENTRO STUDI SUL FEDERALISMO

PROGRAM

Financial Crisis, Equity, Democracy and Climate Change: Challenges and Proposals

DAY 1: Monday 17 May 2021

9.30 BRT (GMT-3), 14.30 CET (GMT+2)

Panel 1 - Jean Monnet Network “Crisis, Equity, Democracy for Europe and Latin America”

Chair: Christian Ghymers (JMN, IRELAC & RTI) (5’)

Welcome words by Costanzo Fisogni, EU Delegation in Brasília
Luiz Roberto Cunha, Dean, Pontifical Catholic University of Rio de Janeiro
Luis Manuel Fernandes, Director, Institute of International Relations, PUC-Rio

“Jean Monnet Network: results of the Phase 1 (2016-2019) and presentation of the book “Financial Crisis Management and Democracy: Lessons from Europe and Latin America””

Bettina Guilherme (JMN, European Parliament -ECON) & Stephany Griffith-Jones (JMN, Emeritus Professorial Fellow, IDS, Sussex University) (15’)

“Jean Monnet Network Phase 2 (2020-2023): objectives and activities”

Andrea Ribeiro Hoffmann (Coordinator JMN, PUC-Rio) (10’)

“The European Budget, Recovery Programme and the fiscal framework”

Margarida Marques (HM of European Parliament) (10’)

Panel 2 - Climate Change and International Monetary System: Challenges and Proposals

Chair: Bernard Snoy (RTI) (5’)

“Sustainable development, central bank strategy in a digital world and reform of the International Monetary System”

Michel Aglietta (University of Paris Nanterre, CEPII) (20’)

“Climate Change: policies to manage its macroeconomic and financial effects”

José Antonio Ocampo (Columbia University, Cátedra José Bonifácio USP) (15’)

“The intertwined market failures explaining the systemic unsustainability”

Christian Ghymers (JMN, IRELAC & RTI) (10’)

“Proposition for cutting CO2 emissions”

Stephan Schulmeister (JMN) (10’)

General Discussion and Q & A (30’) – closing time : 12:00 in Brazil = 17:00 in Brussels

DAY 2: Tuesday 18 May 2021

9.30 BRT (GMT-3), 14.30 CET (GMT+2)

Panel 3 - Green Economy and Financing for Development

Chair: Andrea Ribeiro Hoffmann (Coordinator JMN, PUC Rio) (5')

“Rethinking international co-operation to define new development models: Perspectives from Development in Transition”

Mario Pezzini (OECD) (15')

“Funding a just and sustainable future: a view from the South”

Rogerio Studart (Senior Fellow, World Resources Institute) (15')

“The role of EIB and national development banks in Covid times and for EU green transformation”

Stephany Griffith-Jones (JMN, Emeritus Professorial Fellow, IDS, Sussex University) (15')

“Financing Development in the Anthropocene”

Paulo Esteves (JMN, PUC-Rio) (15')

General Discussion and Q&A (30') – closing time: 11:30 in Brazil = 16:30' in Brussels

The event will be held on Zoom platform

All participants should fill in this registration form

The link will be sent later to the previously registered persons.